

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Birding

VOL. 42 • NO. 2 • MARCH 2010

Cover Photo: This is an adult female Red-tailed Hawk, but what subspecies is it? Is it a “Western” × “Harlan’s” intergrade or a pure “Western”? A discussion about this bird and several others like it is available online <aba.org/birding/v42n2p5w1.pdf>. Photo by © Jerry Liguori. Davis County, Utah; 4 April 2009.

Correspondence

9 The President’s Perch

ROBERT G. ROBINSON

10 Your Letters

- Collecting and Ethics
- ABA Area Expansion
- Hummingbird Molt
- Field Technique
- Taxonomy vs. Utility
- Random Feedback

16 A Birding Interview

with JULIE ZICKEFOOSE

20 People and Places

Contributions from the ABA Family

22 Sightings

Mid-January to Early February 2010
MICHAEL L. P. RETTER

26 News and Notes

- A New “Pacific Wren”?
- Whither the Avian Hyphen?
- Trans-Gulf Migrants’ Timing
- Long-billed Curlew Conservation

PAUL HESS

Chestnut-sided Warbler.

See article, p. 46.

Photo by © Garth McElroy.

Feature Articles

30 Comparison of Harlan’s with Western and Eastern Red-tailed Hawks

JERRY LIGUORI and BRIAN L. SULLIVAN

38 A Study of Krider’s Red-tailed Hawk

JERRY LIGUORI and BRIAN L. SULLIVAN

46 Being There

DONALD KROODSMA

Special Section

84 2010 ABA Gear Guide Preview!

Departments

54 Answers to the January Photo Quiz

Muck Ducks and Slimepipers
RICK WRIGHT

58 Traditions

Bird Clubs and Bluebird Trails: Early 1960s
PAUL J. BAICICH

60 Book Review Special EXTENDED EDITION

commentary by ERIC SALZMAN

reviews by • ROBERT O. PAXTON

• DAPHNE GEMMILL • MICHAEL GOCHFELD

• SHAIBAL S. MITRA • MARK COCKER

• DAVID LIEBMANN

88 New Photo Quiz

