

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Birding

VOL. 42 • NO. 5 • SEPTEMBER 2010

Cover Photo: Ever wondered why a Red-necked

Grebe's bill is black above and yellow below?

Check out our Cover WebExtra <aba.org/birding/v42n5p5w1.pdf> and find out the answer.

Red-necked Grebe. Anchorage, Alaska; June 2009.

Photo by © Brian E. Small.

Correspondence

10 Your Letters

- Collecting Vagrants
- Predicting Vagrants
- The Value of Birding
- Cuckoo Parasitism
- Fea's Petrel
- "Vagrate"

20 A Birding Interview

with GEOFFREY HILL

24 Sightings

Mid-July to Early August 2010

MICHAEL L. P. RETTER

28 News and Notes

- Willow Flycatcher Variation
- Birds Are Shrinking
- Prothonotary Warbler Habitat
- Dinosaur Plumage Colors

PAUL HESS

Feature Articles

32 How Birds' Bills Help Them See

SEAN M. WILLIAMS and

EDWARD H. BURTT, JR.

40 Remembering Paul A. Schwartz (1917–1979):

Pioneer Neotropical Bird Recordist and Taxonomist

GREGG GORTON

52 Conservation Birding

GAVIN SHIRE

Departments

60 Answers to the July Photo Quiz

Messed-up Gulls

JULIAN HOUGH • TED FLOYD

66 Tools of the Trade

The Leica APO-Televid 82

DEREK LOVITCH

70 Book Reviews

Handbook of the Birds of the World, vol. 14

• KEITH BARNES, reviewer

New Bird Books for Costa Rica

• SCOTT OLMSTEAD, reviewer

76 Dimensions

Spring Vacation: Stalking the Black Rail

DARLENE FRIEDMAN

80 New Photo Quiz

Birding pioneer Paul A. Schwartz. See article, p. 40. Photos by © Paul A. Schwartz (left) and © Ramón Rivero (center, right).